

CHANGING PERSPECTIVES REVIEW WORKSHEET

“HOW WERE THE EUROPEANS CHANGING GLOBAL TRADE?”

NAME: _____

1. What major overland trade route connected Asia, Africa, and Europe? What goods were traded?
2. What were the Europeans hoping to gain from their overseas explorations?
3. What goods were exchanged in the Atlantic Trading Triangle?
4. What beliefs and worldviews motivated Europeans to explore and expand?
5. What were the Europeans' attitudes towards the places and people they met on their overseas expeditions?

6. Who was Captain James Cook? What did the British want him to find?
7. Were there examples of cooperation and conflict during this historical period?
8. Are peace treaties always peaceful? Does it depend on whose perspective we take?
9. Based on this video, list three European countries involved in the Age of Exploration. Out of this list, which countries do you think had a lasting influence on present-day Canada? What evidence do you have to support your argument?